

EUR DYSSEY

Assembly of European Regions

Enabling regional youth mobility since 1985

Distinctive features

What's in for regions?

- Breaking down socio-economic barriers
- Favoring equal opportunities

Promoting fair mobility

- Facilitating the transition of youth to the labour market
- Tackling youth unemployment

Increasing youth employability

- Fostering a multicultural sensitivity at work.
- Harnessing the potential of young qualified workers.

Open-up companies to Europe

- Strengthening interregional cooperation.
- Spreading the notion of European citizenship.

Building ties between regions

How to join the network?

Five steps towards becoming a Eurodyssey Member

1

Eligibility

Being a member region of AER

- Non-members can also join (BUT) for a two-year period

• Adhere to the 3 basic principles

- Autonomy
- Networking
- Reciprocity

• Compliance with the “Governance” documents

- Statute & Procedures

2

Request for membership

Expression of interest by the candidate region:
Contact us

Letter from the Eurodissey President:
Addressed to the Regional President of the candidate region

Submission of a formal request signed by the regional authority:
In reply to the Eurodissey President's letter

3

Application

Formal request to the Presidency of Eurodissey

Questionnaire for candidates

Application assessment
by the Steering Committee

4

Assessment procedure

5

What's next?

Interested in learning more?

Contact the Programme Coordinator at the AER Secretariat, Andres Munoz Rojo

Email: a.munoz@aer.eu

